

1 DELEGATE CLARK: Delegate Schloeder.

2 DELEGATE SCHLOEDER: As I understand it, that's
3 correct, sir.

4 DELEGATE CLARK: Delegate Child.

5 DELEGATE CHILD: So that what you propose to 6 do now is to go to all the trouble which in 1926 the
7 people went to all the trouble to change, you propose
8 to go to all the trouble to change back, is that right?

9 DELEGATE CLARK: Delegate Schloeder.

10 DELEGATE SCHLOEDER: I wouldn't phrase it
11 exactly that way, but I think, again, what we are 12 attempting to do is to provide for better visibility on 13 issues and candidates, to lessen the coat-tail effect,
14 and if we sometimes have to step back to a pre or mid 15 1920 tradition, I think we should be able to do that.
16 I think the situation has changed now. It is a different
17 situation now than it was in the mid twenties, as I under-
18 stand it.

19 DELEGATE CLARK: Judge Child.

20 DELEGATE CHILD: Does it not have the effect
21 that I described?
